17TH YEAR - NO. 23

WILMINGTON, MASS., THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1972

FIFTEEN CENTS

TAXES MIGHT STAY THE SAME

The Massachusetts Department of Accounts announced Tuesday that there will be larger sums of money available to the Towns and Cities, through state distribution, as shown on the so-called Cherry Sheets. Wilmington, according to this information, would receive $366,967.16 more than it did last year.

Everything else being equal, this could mean $3 on the tax rate - approximately. But don't bet on it. There is a lot of work to be done yet - and perhaps the town will be voting for a new High School before the tax rate is finally set.

The tax rate a year ago (1971) was $50.25. When the Town walked out of the annual Town Meeting in March, the tax rate for 1972 - so far - was $52.60. From that sum subtract $3, and the town might - just might, be back to a tax rate of $50 for 1972.

Without a new High School.

Planning Board votes a Mickey

The Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday night voted to make the acceptance of an Official Map of Wilmington their number one project for the coming year. The vote was four to one. Mr. MacKinnon being absent. He is the only member of that board who has expressed some opposition to an Official Map.

The Planning Board also voted to slip a Mickey to the Jackson Brothers, Wilmington Builders, in voting to have a hearing on the rescission of a plan, after the Jackson Brothers had expressed an interest in the land, and with no discussion of the idea with the Wilmington firm.

An Official Map is one that defines the streets or a town or city, and if the streets are not on such a map the owner of any land involved cannot get permits to build. It is designed to eliminate so called paper streets, streets which were planned some years ago, but never built.

An Official Map was prepared in 1967 for the Wilmington Planning Board by Consultant Charles Downes of Bedford. It was never submitted to the Town Meeting for a vote.

Only a couple of municipalities in Massachusetts have gone so far as to have adopted an Official

Map. There are several reasons why a map should be adopted, and there are other reasons why it should not.

Proponents contend, and at least for a starter, quite correctly, that having an Official Map helps to control the number of homes built in a town or city, in any given period of time.

Probably more than one hundred homes have been built in Wilmington on plans with 'paper streets' in the past couple of years. The two men who are in the Engineering Department of Wilmington have been busy this spring trying to solve street drainage problems caused by the building of such homes.

Both expressed themselves, Tuesday night, as being in favor of an official map for Wilmington.

One of the arguments against the adoption of an Official Map is that such an action brings on a lot of lawsuits against a municipality. In destroying the so-called paper streets the town or city destroys property values, and is subject to damages which can be quite expensive, in a court of law.

Anyway, the Planning Board has now voted to work for the adoption of an Official Map, and members Bill Hanlon and Bob Leahy are to start work on the project.

Number Two, on the Planning Board's list, is the updating of the Planning Board's Rules and Regulations covering Sub-Divisions in Wilmington.

Number Three project is all comprehensive, and is entitled Updating the Land Bank, and the Land Use Map.

The program is to be designed, for instance, so as to help other town departments to acquire any land needed for their purposes. Such departments could include the Water Commissioners, the Recreation Department, the Conservation Commission and/or the School Department.

Chairman Mort Grant said that one mission that could be included by this was to institute two types of Rural Zoning - one of which would have two acre lots of land.

In some instances, the board felt, the town could find itself selling land under this program to neighbors and abutters.

Number Four in the Planning Board list was the Updating of Street Names. Number Five was to plan and develop Off Street Parking, particularly with the emphasis on the new Route 129 Bypass, of which Rep. Cain has been speaking this week.

One of the two engineers, John Majkewicz of Wakefield, said that, with reference to paper streets, that town treats the problem by using the Board of Survey. As he described it, there is no problem in that town.

The Board of Survey used to be a function of the Board of Selectmen, in Wilmington. Since the adoption of the Town Manager Plan the powers involved were taken over by the Planning Board.

The Planning Board decided to write a letter to Town Counsel Alan Altman, asking that he attend the next meeting, on June 27, for the purpose of explaining what the Planning Board could and could not do.

A Mickey?

Two firms interested in the building of homes in Wilmington, were among the visitors to the Board Tuesday night, the Jay Dee Company, and the Jackson Brothers. Both in effect can be said to have been 'slipped a Mickey' as the saying is.

Jay Tighe and Dave Newhouse are the Jay Dee Company. They are building homes off Salem Street, in North Wilmington, at a place called Corum Meadows.

Tighe and Newhouse were pre-

Plenty of water Available

Or, as the joke goes, the Water Department has plenty of raw material on hand.

Half a dozen years ago in Massachusetts there was a severe drought. Such is not the case today. Wilmington had plenty of rain last year - and there is even more this year - nine inches ahead of the comparable rainfall of a year ago.

There was 7.45 inches in May, and so far in June there has been 4.97 inches - of which 2.80 fell during the night of June 3-4.

Remember that rainfall?

Roger Durkin is Independent Candidate

Roger P. Durkin of Lowell will seek the 5th Congressional District seat vacated by F. Bradford Morse.

Mr. Durkin states that he is seeking the office as a totally independent citizen and intends to be "behind" to no political party. He says he desires the seat because he wants to represent All the people. He is not seeking a political nomination.

He feels that the "usual politicians" don't see things in the same light in which they are seen by the people and that many voters are getting "fed up".

Mr. Durkin, who has never before sought public office is affiliated with the Greater Lowell Mental Health Association, the Lowell Humane Society, the Jaycee Housing Corp., the Mass. Police Assn., the Boys Club and Rotary International.

New Psychiatric Worker for Family Counseling

BEN CHIAMPA: Of Melrose has joined the Wilmington Family Counseling Service as a Psychiatric Social Worker. He is shown here with Dr. Carol Galub of the Wilmington Family Counseling Service, and James J. Durkee, President.

Mr. Durkee, incidentally, has just become the President-Elect of the Massachusetts Society of Hospital Pharmacists.

The Rev. Robert Smith is to leave Wilmington

It wasn't quite nine years ago that a new family moved into the parsonage of the First Baptist Church of Wilmington. The new home for the Smith family happens to be at the geographical center of the town, but it took a long time for the people to fully learn of the qualities of this man.

He is quiet. He doesn't have much to say, which is possibly a rare quality for a Baptist preacher.

Walter H. Pierce, Wilmington Superintendent of Schools said it yesterday for the people of Wilmington.

"He goes about his duties in a very quiet fashion. You don't know that he is there - but he has been helping the students of Wilmington all the time. I am personally aware of this".

And he helps everyone else, too. He is going to be missed.

AFTER THE SERVICES ON JUNE 4th: George Boylan, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Selectman Danny Gills, the Rev. Mr. Smith, Fr. Lawrence Brennan of St. Dorothy's Church, Rep. Fred F. Cain, and the Rev. H. Allen Taddell of the Congregational Church.

A STANDING OVATION: Yesterday, to the retiring Secretary of the Wilmington Rotary Club.

With one of his friends of the Wilmington Golden Age Club - Mrs. Grace Bourbeau.

HOOPER ON ELECTRIC STUDY COMMITTEE

George Hooper, 12 Allen Park Drive was appointed chairman of the Electric Rate Study Committee, by the Board of Selectmen, Monday night. The appointment was unanimous, with a remark by the chairman that other persons were to be appointed later, and another remark later, that Mr. Hooper was a person that they would work with.

Mrs. Diane Fielding of Hopkins Street, who has been working all along on the committee, told the Town Crier that she was happy that the Selectmen were concerned. She will be happy, she said, to work with Mr. Hooper.

Hooper, State Insurance Examiner, has been a resident of Wilmington for the past four years.

WRECKED TRUCK BODIES: In the past few days there has been a heavy traffic on Salem Street, as trucks transport a supply of broken stone to some destination eastward.

There was a collision with a town truck, Tuesday, near Martin's Brook. Both trucks suffered considerable body damage. Part of the stone load may be seen, the rest having been pushed aside by a bulldozer. The body of the truck was completely severed from the truck, and the town truck had its body pushed over to one side.

Bob Leathe of Salem Street, was taken to the New England Memorial Hospital in Stoneham, and returned home yesterday.

A five town computer at Shawsheen Tech?

There was a conference in Shawsheen Tech, in Billerica, yesterday. From five towns, came Town Managers, Executive Secretaries, etc., to discuss a proposal that a computer set up be made there that can be used in all five towns.

The host of the meeting was Robert W. Brooks, Business Manager of the Shawsheen Valley Technical High School. The discussion was on a proposal, made last May, by Sterling Morris, Town Manager of Wilmington.

There is, Morris points out, a 100,000 population in the five towns. It is worth while to seriously consider the use of an in-house facility at Shawsheen Tech for the use of those five towns, for two purposes.

First: It could be a training tool, in the phases of computer technology. It would be a part of the Phase II, Capital Outlays for Schools.

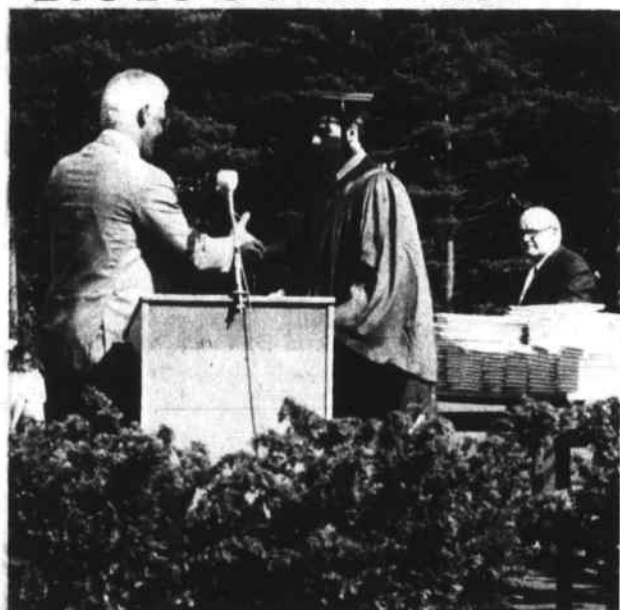

Second: The computerization could be good for all the towns, in reducing costs. Standardize is the word. Morris hopes to see all five towns standardize their accounts in proceedings through the State Bureau of Accounts.

There are many functions, he points out, that can be operated. He named a few - Water Bills, Tax Bills, School Schedules, Persons Listed, and Payrolls.

All could be done at a lesser cost to the taxpayer.

BIOLOGY AWARD

For the eleventh year, a $500 scholarship has been awarded by the Charles River Breeding Laboratories, Inc. to a Wilmington High School student interested in biology.

Thomas Vavo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vavo was given the award by Everett Aubry of Charles River.

Vavo will be attending Salem

State College, in September, and will be majoring in biology.

Dr. Henry Foster, president of Charles River is always interested in pupils who follow a career in a biological field. His company, he says, feels privileged to have an opportunity to play a part in aiding a Wilmington High School Senior to pursue such a rewarding career.

Soccer Team in three-way Tie

Last Sunday's Wilmington-Newton Soccer game ended in a 1-1 tie and left Wilmington tied for first place with Dedham and Winchester.

The game played on Sunday, June 11th was the ninth and next to the last of the season.

Bob Swisher opened the score with a shot just inside the right post. The pass came from center forward, Tom Aprile.

Newton then put a low shot past Wilmington's goalie, Howie Coombs and the game was all even.

Later in the game, Newton had two penalty shots, but misfired on both.

On Saturday, June 3rd, the boys played a make-up game against Sudbury, the first having been cancelled due to wet grounds.

Rick Deihl scored the opener on a misplaced ball in front of the Sudbury net with a hard, low shot to have Sudbury tie it up minutes later.

Wilmington had many scoring chances, but were not on net, so the score remained 1-1.

Sudbury forfeited the game for using illegal players and Wilmington was awarded the two points.

On Sunday, June 4th, Wilmington travelled to Weyland for their eighth game of the season.

Bob Swisher opened the score on a perfect pass from Rick Verus that sent him in alone.

In the second half, it was Dave Maloney scoring his first goal of the season on a hard shot to the upper left hand corner. The score ended up, Wilmington 2-0, Weyland 0.

HOME OWNERS CORNER

Have you a warping problem? This can often be solved very simply with a heating lamp. Warping is generally caused by an uneven distribution of wetness which then dries unevenly. To combat this, heat from a heat lamp applied to the convex side of the warp will often cause the wood to straighten into shape. Don't hold the lamp too close, however, or the wood will be scorched. Many do-it-yourself problems can be solved with advice from the experts at Sweeney Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., 658-2051. We stock a complete supply of all types of lumber including the hardwoods and are open from 8 am to 5 pm daily and 8 am to 9 pm on Friday. For your handyman this Father's Day see our selection of Rockwell tools. We have the basic shop tools on display including 10" table saw, radial drill, 4" deluxe jointer, 10" radial saw, drills,igsaw circular saw and sander. Charge with Bank Americard or Master Charge. Helpful Hint: A sealer of some sort will keep wood from warping and should be applied as soon as possible.

TM to State Director of Accounts

Where is the excise tax Money?

Town Manager Sterling Morris thinks that the law should be changed, on the collection of excise taxes. (taxes on automobiles).

When a person registers his car he should pay his taxes, is the way that Morris expresses it. Massachusetts, he says, has the most awkward system he has ever seen to collect this kind of taxes.

Wilmington is currently over $350,000 short of funds, because the state has not delivered excise taxes, and this is compared with deliveries of a year ago. The Town has received no Excise Taxes from the Commonwealth this year.

It is becoming harder and harder for the town to operate, Morris told Gordon McGill, Director of Accounts. It has already had to borrow $2,750,000 this year, and next week the town has to pay the school teachers their vacation money.

People who move out of state, and from whom excise tax money had not been collected very rarely, if ever send the money back. Mr. Morris says that "every month you get a new list of people who have gone, and who haven't paid."

The big question to Mr. McGill is: "Will you please advise us by return mail when we can expect some income from the excise tax, to prevent us from going further into debt, caused by the inability of a State Agency to provide an excise tax commitment which is now many months overdue?"

DAVID DOWNS AT CAMP LEJUNE

Marine Private David H. Downs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M.

Anderson of 89 West St., has reported for duty at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

David is a former student of Wilmington High School.

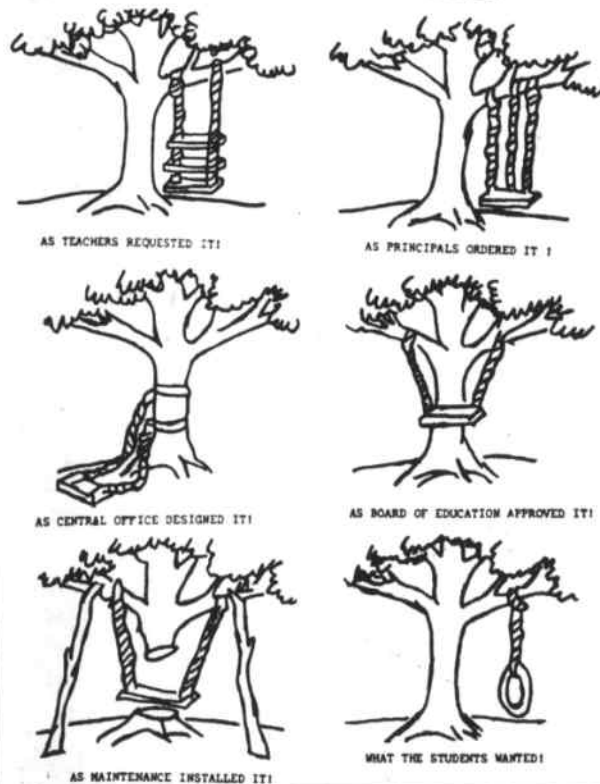

From the Courier-Gazette of Rockland, Maine.

Sidney L. Cullen, editor-publisher of the Rockland Maine Courier-Gazette, has a personal column which he calls "The Black Cat".

The material below is from his column. It was first printed on May 6th, a little over a month ago. Ed.

The making of the first swing must have been an awesome task. In recent months many versions of the procedure have brought many a chuckle as cartoonist and sketcher, amateur and professional, have added to the ideas. In essence, it is a takeoff on official bumbling. Most we had seen up to this week attributed it to the French, the Irish and the Polish. But, it was left to someone in education, and a someone who had had it up to here with officialdom to come up with the sketches below which appeared in The Maine Teacher.

A WORD FROM THE CONSUMER

Letter

Dear Larz:

This note is in response to Mr. Pierce's letter in your June 8th issue; you will recall he answered some of my observations regarding the school construction issue. I was pleased to note that Mr. Pierce had taken the time and interest to respond and after having briefly talked to him on the phone, I feel that I own him and the school committee somewhat of an apology for a few of the remarks I made in my first letter.

Mr. Pierce assured me that considerable effort is made to inform the public of school committee activities and that a great deal of research and debate have taken place concerning one alternative I mentioned, namely the year round school plan.

As to public notice of school committee meetings and agenda plans, I guess I don't read the Town Crier as well as I should. Mr. Pierce mentioned that notice of all school committee meetings and agenda are as a matter of routine, published in the Town Crier. I checked this and sure enough, he was and is correct.

I must admit that I am one of all those persons who did not show up at that school committee meeting on April 6th and did not hear the discussion of the report concerning the year round school plans. Mr. Pierce has since kindly sent me a copy of the report.

I tried to give the impression in my first letter that I believe there may be a number of alternatives to further school construction in this town and not necessarily just the two I mentioned: year round schools and or suffer with present facilities. Evidently I did not give this impression strongly enough. I still contend that if there were a strong enough commitment in this town toward the belief that new construction is not the only solution to the problem, some real alternative could be found.

I disagree with Mr. Pierce's statement in his letter that "It is hard to find anything new about this topic." I also question his statements concerning watering down diluted programs and his observation "that we are once again having to deny youngsters many choices in some of the minor areas." It sounds to me as though he has equated in importance minor areas of scholastic endeavor which could be described as slow strangulation by real estate taxes. The time is here and now to call a halt just to accommodate the "minor areas" and to concentrate more effort on the major areas, both scholastic and financial.

After reading the report by the sub-committee to the school committee concerning year round school programs, I was left with the impression that the issues were pre-judged before research had begun and that the authors of the report were pre-disposed against the matter before they went to work on it.

This may be an erroneous view on my part, but I do think that any new concept new to Wilmington such as this is very easily shot down by usual resistance to change and that this sort of program would only work with large doses of positive thinking and community support. I wish Mr. Little, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, could obtain permission to send out the questionnaire that was shown in appendix I of the report. I would like to know what the people think about extended school year.

Again, my apology to Mr. Pierce and the school committee for some of the inferences made in my first letter.

Sincerely yours,
David E. Wiberg

How to mistake a Realtor for an anybody in real estate.

It's easy. If you don't know what a Realtor is.
He's not just anyone in real estate. He's the professional. The one with experience and expertise, who is pledged to the strict code of ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. If he weren't, he couldn't be a Realtor.
That's good. Especially when he's working for you. Because you can relax, knowing your best interests are being taken care of, ethically, professionally.

There's no better way than that, is there? EASTERN MIDDLESEX

HOSPITAL FUND NOTES

Auction Postponed

At a Committee Meeting on Monday, June 12th, co-chairmen Ray York and Ray MacNamara of the Auction Sale schedule for the end of this month, decided that it would be advisable to postpone the event until September.

However, don't give up searching those attics, garages and cellars for saleable items - Ray and Ray will be collecting them all summer. Give them a call at 658-9128 or 658-4511 - ask for Ray - you'll have the right number in either case. You could also call Lil Woodside at 657-7677.

$120 Check
A $120 check is familiar to many sports fans in Wilmington during the past three months. A $120 check caused a lot of boasting from one sports fan to another during the hockey season. A $120 check caused a lot of egos to be deflated when the play-offs began.

Many $120 checks caused a terrific amount of concern to a good guy who tried to help his friends out.

Last, but not least, all $120 checks ended as they started (all returned) and the hospital fund gained one of them.

Many thanks to Fred Cain and Ray York.

WORLD WAR II VETS. CHECK YOUR INSURANCE

The Veterans Administration has urged all World War II, GI insurance policyholders to take a second look at the type of policy pay-off they have selected for their next of kin.

VA warned that too many widows of World War II policy holders are penalized following their husband's death upon finding they had selected an option providing small monthly payments over 24 or 36 months. Oftentimes that selection was made over 25 years ago and never updated by the veteran.

World War II policyholders who wish now to switch to lump sum payments, should ask VA for 29-336 and selection Option No. 11.
Simply mail that form to the VA Insurance Center where he makes his payments.

ing, swimming, cooking, an Ecu-combining good taste and light weight, as well as ease in cooking.

In spite of the rain on Sunday,
the trip continued to be enjoyable

Spring Hockey

Pee Wee A's: Don Rossi's pucksters skated their way into first place in the Spring League with a thrilling 5-4 victory over Peabody last Saturday.

The Pee-Wee's scored early when Tom Gracia stole an errant Peabody pass at mid-ice and skated in and faked the Peabody goalie. Two minutes later Paul Sullivan scored with Gracia and Ron Marasco assisting to increase the Wilmington lead to 2-0. However, Peabody closed the gap to 2-1 scoring one minute later. At 8:39 Steve Foley scored for the Pee-Wee's on a goal that was set up by some beautiful passing by Marasco and Greg Moulton.

Blaisdell increased Wilmington's lead to 5-3 when he scored at 1:37 of the final stanza on an excellent pass by Moulton. Coach Rossi's boys displayed great poise and came away the victors.

The next game is this Saturday at the Youth Arena at 7:20 a.m. against Tewksbury.

Squirt "A": Last Friday a well drilled and hustling Stoneham team handed Wilmington its first shut-out of the spring season, 4-0. Sunday morning league leading Peabody (11-0) extended the Squirt's losing streak by defeating out-boys, 5-1. The lone Wilmington score came as a result of a fine steal and pass by David LaLiberte which was finished off by Jimmy Burns who was being pressed by the defense.

Both games were hard hitting and good over-all defensive play was featured by excellent goal tending. The team hopes to regain their scoring touch against Tewksbury Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.

Squirt "B": Dick Gunn's Gunners treated their coach and loyal fans to a sweet and long awaited victory over Manchester last Saturday at Hockeystown.

It was a pleasure to watch this group of fine young men struggle back to overcome and deliver their first win after losing against formidable teams during the majority of their outings.

Ralph Gunnerson started the excitement by being hauled down from behind during a breakaway in the first period. He subsequently awarded a penalty shot and Ralph proceeded to tuck the puck for a Wilmington score.

In the middle frame Pat Palmer scored during a goal mouth scramble. Manchester fought back in the third period with a goal midway into the frame. However, Coach Gunn's skaters hung on to post a 2-1 win. Matt DePasquale was superb in the nets to backbone the fine team effort.

The boys close out their season this Saturday with a 6:40 pm game at Hockeystown against Medford.

Mite "A": The Mites wrapped up their first season this past week on a winning note, shutting out No. Reading, 2-0. The game winning goal was scored midway into the opening period by John Robson tipping in a Ron Greenberg pass. The insurance goal, while playing shorthanded, was scored in the last stanza by Greenberg on a fine unassisted rush.

The Mites concluded their season 3-7-1 winning their last two games by shut outs. The boys look forward to a winning session in the fall with this year's experience under their belts.

The "silent minority" who have not gained much publicity, but played good hockey throughout the season were centerman Ray Durling, wingers Bill Robinson, John Wierg, John Cushing, Jeff Lux, Sten Larson, along with defenseman Billy Barrett and last but not least the team's favorite sport, J.J. Barrett.

Hello there - Now that Prom was like Wuthering Heights with sheets of rain, lightning and thunder on that ride to Crane's Beach. It was like living in a movie - that drive to the castle. The young ladies were gorgeous and the gentlemen gallant! It was a wonderful time for all. Some difference from those blue jeans and T shirts kids! Great.

Graduation was a gorgeous day. Barb, you're elected to run it from now on. The ease with which it went off was something. Congratulations to you, Class of 72 - Much luck in your future endeavors (and this Mom is mighty proud of No. 5 Son and his good tassel - thanks for being my kid there boy!).

Dapper Harold is out - good work there Mr. McK. Sorry this Chick missed your call this week. Come again soon and keep well.

Dottie Melander sent this Gal an excerpt from The Floridian, dated May 28th. Seems that our own Doc Foster of Charles River Breeding Labs bought an island called Loggerhead Key near the Silver River in Florida. There he will grow the Rhesus monkeys in a colony being planned by poronologists (monkey experts). The monkeys will have plenty of food and water and wander free. Tourists will be unable to get to the island which will be monitored by electronic equipment. Believe this is a "first" too. Doc. Much luck on your venture with the experimental colony. Thanks, Dottie, for the news. That's something when the news comes via that route back to Willie. Preciate your thinking of this Gal. My love to you and the kids.

Hayward Bliss will be with those Kiwanians International next week in Atlantic City vet. With the white tuxedo jacket vet. Did you break down and get that ruffled shirt Hayward? And no invite for that trip? This gal is slipping!

You Gals got those cards ready? Wavie Drew called and said that Mrs. Minot Anderson of Lowell Street is a patient at NE Memorial in Stoneham and will be confined a while. We're all rooting for you Mrs. A. Work at getting well soon!

Mrs. D. also has that Women's Lib going. You gals, mothers with minor children are now eligible for Jury Duty. And that young lady is now making up the list, so let Marv O'Rourke or Mrs. Drew know if you are interested.

Thanks a lot to that gallant Bob Bousefield for the rescue on Rt. 28 in Stoneham. Ya won't believe this - Yup she did run out of gas and it was only Friday and she never has to fill up until Saturday, but she forgot. No. 4 Son has borrowed it the day before - Nuf said!

June 21st, Strawberry Festival 6-8 pm - Shortcake and ice cream and strawberries and Fran Ganchin in charge so will be good. You can be certain of that!

Jan Coester thanks all for the clothes and food contributed for the Hospic work in Lowell. The drive will continue so save the good clothing and food items and leave them at the Church - Methodist type - or call Jane. That's a girl!

Well the Beach will soon be in full swing - with school out and all that - lifeguards are on duty at the Town Beach at the end of the lake with the bathhouse. Make certain your small fry understand because the gards are not - repeat - not at the Baby Beach. Understand there was a good turnout for the Bible Study on the Book of John at the Library last Thursday - don't forget, it is a four week series.

Have you noted that Willie is selling water to Burlie? Well, there was certainly plenty around last week. Wonder what happened to that reservoir they planned for the Garden of Eden.

Speaking of the Library as we were a while back - now's the time to return that book Captain. No fines all this week!

Don't forget the Women's Club Garden Tea Party on Thursday the 22nd at the home of Mrs. Frederick Worby, 316 Middlesex Ave. It's for their scholarship fund and you're all invited.

Sure enjoyed that Laurie Anderson - Bob Marchant wedding last weekend - gorgeous day, gorgeous girl at St. Thomas. Congratulations there kids!

Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews of 70 West St., returned home last Saturday following an enjoyable visit with friends and relatives in Foxboro - nice to have you back Liz - and we're glad you enjoyed yourself.

Nice to see Martha Woodside of Aldrich home from Winchester Hospital - Martha is that nice lady who generously donated the lovely afghan to the Hospital Fund.

Roger Beaupre of the Sweezy Home Courtesy Center is back at Winchester Hospital - Esther Sargent of Morse Ave. has had to return to Mount Auburn for more testing and Mrs. Elizabeth Kellev of Shawheen Ave. is a patient at Clover Hill in Lawrence - keep your collective chins up you three - and we all want to see you back in Willie real soon!

Four Wilmington people are are evidently working on the Kerry for Congress Committee - Donna Marie Everette, Jeanne Future, John Markey, Jr. and Maureen Mollard.

Some wonderings have been sounding as to why Jim Miceli was marching in the Memorial Day Parade - he is not a town official at the moment - that's right he isn't, but on Memorial Day he marched as Governor Sargent's Representative. So there!

If someone knocks on your door between the 19th and the 23rd of this month and says that he or she is taking a government survey, they probably are - cooperate if you can, it has to do with the nation's population data and is vital to planners both in government and private business.

Don't forget that DeMolay Auction at the Masonic Temple on June 17th.

This gal took the invite of Ed Sullivan et al to view the indoctrination at the Elks last nite, but more about them next week. Those have turned out to be some land those Elks.

John Elia, as practically every one knows, is quite a guy in a lot of ways, but his wife outdid him, for Father's Day.

To take care of John's roses and other flowers she gave him a package of 2,000 lady bugs. John should have Marge run some of his businesses.

Home and up and around is Irene Baker of Grove Ave., after an operation. Hope you have an enjoyable summer lazing around and enjoying yourself, at the beach maybe?

Noticed Tabby Cat's softball team won another game this week. They triumphed over National Poly on Tuesday - those two groups are really fighting it out for the bottom slot - should be more fun than being on top though.

No stress and strain - no great gloom over a loss - just the fun and camaraderie of the game. Don't give up hope fellas, the season is young yet - and as the saying goes - 'Tis better to have tried and failed - etc.' You must really be a bunch of good sports.

Daily Vacation Bible School will be conducted at the Congregational Church from June 26th thru the 30th - 9 am to 11:45 for youngsters 3 years up to the sixth grade.

Meanwhile, back at the Hut, things were swinging last week-end with the gathering of the Clan for the graduation festivities. Ken and Ellie Cleary joined us for the first encounter and whatta va know - they seemed to survive smiling. No. 5 Son has been swinging that lovely Jean Cleary for some time now - and we love that young miss.

So - have been half promised out for the end of this month, but this gal will believe that when she sees it cause all she gets is promises. Mebbe she'll be joining those Rhesus Monkeys of Doc Foster's before too long (sometimes she thinks she has). But she'll tell you on these bright cool am's it takes all of her intellectual fortitude to make that Red Wagon turn of on 133 at 6:30 am and not keep right on up Rt. 93 in that glorious sunlight to New Hampshire and other points North!

So - back on the Strip soon - She hopes. Meanwhile - Bee Good - Happy Father's Day to Ya - Feet up, Fellas! Breakfast in Bed? Snap that whip!!!

Luv Ya! Yum Yum!!

Water. How precious and important it is to human life! Water actually makes up about two-thirds of the body's weight.

Water is a solvent for many substances. Your body uses it for transporting nutrients and waste materials, regulating body temperature as a cushion to protect inner organs from external shocks.

Water is a lubricant and a builder of tissues. Water, therefore, is important.

What are you doing to protect the water you drink?

PLANNING BOARD

sent to discuss the progress of their plan for the development. They would like to start the pouring of foundations for some of the homes within the next two weeks.

This will be before the next meeting of the Planning Board, and their proposals and plans have not yet been fully accepted by the Planning Board.

Tighe told the Board that the firm had borrowed money for the construction of streets, that the interest rate was 8½%, and that they had a bid, from the Essex Bituminous Company, for the construction of the streets. The price was $23,645, including sidewalks and curbs.

Tighe said he realized that the Planning Board had not had a chance to study the figures, but he hoped to get an answer shortly because of the expenses involved. His firm could put in all the roads at once, and save money. He knew that the previous Town Engineer had recommended that the streets have their first coat, and then wait until the houses were finished before the last coat be put in. But that would mean an extra cost for the Jay Dee firm.

The unspoken hope was that the cost of the streets not go too high. The town's engineers have to submit a figure on their estimates, which figure is used for the purpose of determining the amount of the bond or cash which the developer must put up, if the street project is not finished right away.

The Planning Board seemed to be sympathetic. Their engineers were instructed to get their estimate of costs to the clerk before the Thursday before the next meeting. This so the members could know the figures before the next meeting.

The 'mickey', if it was one, came an hour later, after the two men had gone home.

One of the Planning Board members said he had been checking into the regulations, and it appeared that the plan for Corum Meadows was not properly prepared. He was going to move for a rescission of the plans, in the next meeting of the Planning Board.

The member went on to explain that according to state regulations a Civil Engineer must design the drain sumps, in the streets, and not a Registered Land Surveyor. The plan for the Corum Meadows project had been signed by a Registered Land Surveyor.

The board listened. There was no vote. One of the Junior Engineers remarked that the distinction between Registered Land Surveyors and Civil Engineers was a form of 'feather bedding'.

Jackson Bros. Mickey

The Jackson Brothers, well known Wilmington firm, appeared before the board shortly before nine pm. They were interested, they said, in buying up what remained of Elmwood Village, in North Wilmington, a real estate development of seventeen years ago. It had been a project of a man named Anthony Signore.

The Jackson Brothers wanted to know if the plan for the land beyond Dorothy Avenue had been rescinded by the Planning Board. Selectman Gillis, who was present and is a former member of the Planning Board, did not think the plan had been rescinded.

A search was made of the Planning Board records, without result. This was no guarantee of accuracy, however, as there has been several instances of 'small boy' burglaries in the old school. The Board discussed asking the Town Clerk for her record.

Fred Jackson, speaking for his brothers, said that the firm was hoping to develop Arlene Avenue beyond its present terminus as it had been planned, and then make a new plan for the remainder of the property above Dorothy Avenue. There had been 67 lots in the Signore Plan, but of these many could not be used because of swampland.

The brothers departed after a few minutes, leaving, as they said, the Planning Board to think it over.

An hour later the Board acted. It voted to hold a public hearing for the purpose of rescinding the old plan of Anthony Signore.

AN IRON MINE IN NORTH WILMINGTON?

The Town Crier has, in the past, written of William Butter, progenitor of the Butters family in Wilmington and probably the first white man to live in what is now Wilmington. William Butter, as has been related, was a Scotsman, one of 5,000 Scots captured by the forces of Cromwell at the Battles of Dunbar and Worcester, in the 1650's in England.

Those Scotsmen were transported to the New World and sold as indentured servants. That was how William and his three brothers arrived in the Colonies.

About fifty of those Scotsmen were sold to the Proprietors of the Sausus Iron Works. That plant was completely rebuilt about ten or fifteen years ago, with the US Steel Industries paying the bill.

The Sausus Iron Works, in nearby Sausus is worth a Sunday visit, by a family, to see how iron was smelted in those Colonial days. It lasted only a few years, but was a valuable source of iron to the Colonial peoples. The output was several tons of finished iron products a year.

Charcoal was used as the source of heat, in the process of converting the iron ore into iron - but, the reader may ask, from whence came the iron ore?

That's the story - and that is why those Scotsmen were bought by the Sausus Iron Works, back over 300 years ago.

There is, in some of the ponds of New England, a precipitate called bog iron. The iron settled at the bottom of the pond. Just how it arrived there the writer cannot say, but he seems to feel that at one time he read the iron ore was precipitated because of the action of some minute form of life.

Anyway, the early Puritans found out that there was iron ore in the bottom of some ponds. They called it bog iron. When it could be collected it was smelted into iron.

Sometimes those ponds filled in, by the growth of peat, or from other causes, but the bog iron still remained. Over 50 years ago a man named Guilford Palmer was trying to sink a pipe into the ground, for a pump, at the lower end of Jones Avenue. He ran into an impenetrable mass, and had to stop. Under his home, where he was driving that pipe, was a mass of bog iron.

But the Scotsmen, at the Sausus Iron Works. The works was located at the edge of a large pond, where iron ore (bog iron) was known to exist. Their job was to wade out into that pond, and dig up that iron ore, which was put into small boats, the writer believes, and taken ashore to the smelter. It wasn't the easiest work to be had, in the Colony of Massachusetts - but the Scots were prisoners of war, and had nothing to say about the work to which they were assigned. Eventually, when their period of indenturehood (seven or nine years) had expired, they were given their freedom.

Up in North Wilmington, south of Salem Street, on the old Colonial Farm known as the Corum Farm there was a pond of about two and one half acres. It was part of the area recently sold to Dave Newhouse and Jay Tighe, and is part of the real estate development that they are now building.

Jay and Dave had their troubles getting the site approved by the Planning Board, the Board of Health, etc. It was springtime, there was water on the land - pools of water. It didn't look good, and the members of the Planning Board remarked upon the standing water. They felt that there was going to be trouble.

The writer had seen that water too, and couldn't understand why it was there. Obviously the land was part of an old glacial lake - and water doesn't stand in such sites.

Last week he investigated. There were great big rocks there - and no rocks are ever found in the sedimentary deposits that constitute a glacial lake. That demanded an explanation.

Investigation disclosed that the slight hill, on which the old Burt Farmhouse (now the Corum home) stands extended out into the old glacial lake that was south of Salem Street. The rocks were a part of that old hill which had survived the grinding actions of the glaciers. They are to be found in only a small portion of the property that Jay and Dave have bought.

But there was something more interesting. Jay and Dave have had a ditch dug, in conformance with the approved plan, to drain the old pond.

And the bottom of that pond was covered with iron ore - a foot and a half thick - even thicker.

WHAT BOG IRON LOOKS LIKE: A 'stone' of pure iron, from the bottom of the pond just south of Salem Street. The hand of Jay Tighe gives the reader an idea of the size of this piece of iron ore, broken off from the solid base in the pond.

There is about 200 tons of bog iron, which was lying at the bottom of that old pond, over the centuries. The Sausus Iron Works could have been built in North Wilmington, and those Scotsmen could have had an easier time than they did in Sausus.

It is possible to trace that iron even further, in light of recent excavations - a trace of it goes back towards Lexington Street, on the other side of Cunningham Road.

The two men have broken through that bed of iron ore, and water is draining off, into Lubbers Brook, like it never did before. It seems quite probable that the difficulties that the neighbors who have been having flooded cellars, and of which they complained to the Planning Board, in one of the public hearings held last spring, will now disappear. The neighbors ought to just love Jay and Dee.

'THE BANK YOU KNOW AND CAN DEPEND ON'

This time you don't have to choose among politicians...

Roger Durkin is running for Congress
He's an Independent Citizen

Now you've got a Real Choice

The Roger Durkin Story

Roger Durkin and his family have deep roots in this District. His father, John J. Durkin has lived here for 50 years. Roger and his brothers were born here, have gone to school here, and have built their business careers here.

Roger Durkin went to Lowell High School, Newman Prep, and Merrimack College—graduating with an A.B. in Sociology. While at Merrimack he founded the Delta Phi Kappa fraternity.

During the early 1960's he was employed as President of Management Motivation Company, a management consulting firm, and as Vice President and director of sales for a Boston-based stock brokerage firm. In 1968, Roger Durkin established his own brokerage firm in Lowell and the Synecop Corporation, a real estate investment firm, the following year. Today he serves as President of both.

Roger Durkin is a tireless worker for civic and charitable groups and causes. He is a Director of the Greater Lowell Mental Health Association, the Lowell Humane Society, and the Jaycee Housing Corporation. He is a member of the Massachusetts Police Association, Rotary International, and the Massachusetts Jaycees—he is State Chairman of their 'Leadership in Action' Program. Durkin is an incorporator of Boys Club and an Advisor to the Committee on Minority Enterprises.

Roger Durkin lives in Lowell with his wife, Anita deSilva, and his four children, Diane and Donna—the twins—(9), Patrick (8), and Julianne (6 weeks).

He's a good citizen. He will make a great Congressman.

Since Brad Morse decided to move on to the UN the politicians for miles around have been swarming to the Primaries like ants to a picnic. The 'has-beens', the 'would-like-to-be's', and the 'also ran's' have been tripping over each other to announce their candidacies. Some have even moved in from outside the district. The Democratic Primary is beginning to look like a cross between a stampede and the demolition derby.

Who needs another Candidate? We do. We need a candidate who's not just another politician. We need a candidate who's a concerned citizen. We need an independent candidate who will owe nothing to any party or any machine. We need Roger Durkin.

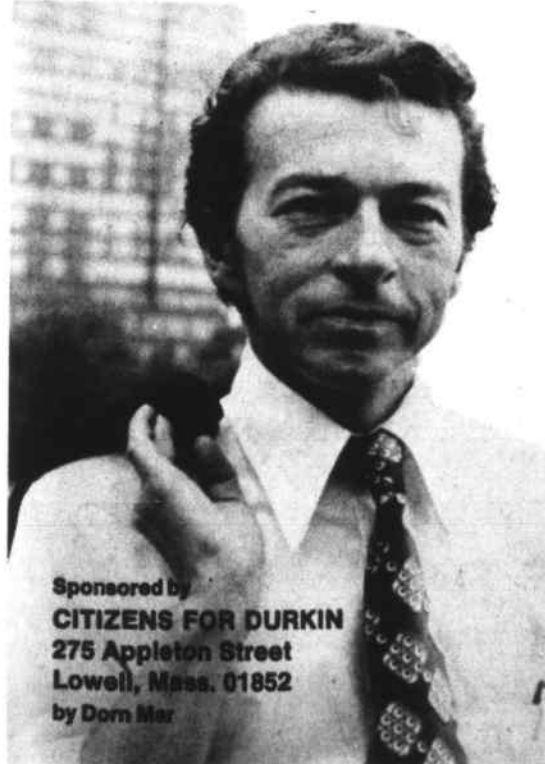

Roger Durkin is running because we, his fellow citizens—Democrats, Republicans and Independents—have asked him to run. And we've asked him because we know he's the kind of man this District desperately needs to represent us in Washington...the kind of man this country needs in the Congress.

We believe when you get to know more about him you'll agree. Roger Durkin is a man with a genius for solving problems, for getting things done. And just look at the problems we've got.

The wearying, winless war in Southeast Asia grinds on and on while politicians play the easy game of armchair generals, each announcing his latest 'instant solution.' And meanwhile our prisoners of war and their families wait in endless anguish. On the home front taxes and prices keep climbing—gouging our earnings. The struggle to make ends meet becomes harder every day.

Our government seems indifferent and remote. The more power it gets the less it seems to know what to do with it. And our sprawling, wasteful welfare programs are a mess.

If we thought the politicians could bail us out we'd leave Roger Durkin alone to tend to his business, his family, and his civic and charitable interests. But let's face it. The politicians are the ones who got us into this mess. And there are no signs they're about to get us out of it. We believe an outstanding citizen, a man with a proven record of achievement in this community, a man with a deep personal concern, can help get us back on the track. We know Roger Durkin isn't just interested in the politics of power. He's interested in performance for people.

Mass by Father Roger LeBlanc at St. Dorothy's Church

FATHER ROGER LEBLANC: Celebrated a Mass at St. Dorothy's Church on June 4th., the church in which he served a year before he was ordained. He is now serving at St. Anthony's Church, in Shirley.

At left is the Pastor, Father Joseph Leahy, and at right the Curate, Fr. Drennan

RICHARD CUTTER
AWARDED JURIS DOCTOR

Richard A. Cutter, son of Atty and Mrs. Simon Cutter of 43 Church Street, Wilmington was awarded the degree of Juris Doctor, at the commencement exercises of Suffolk University on June 11th.

He is a graduate of Worcester Academy and Boston University.

Mrs Robert H Lawrence

At 3:30 on Sunday afternoon, May 28th, Kathleen Ann Blizard daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Detroit, Michigan became the bride of Robert H. Lawrence Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawrence of Linda Road, Wilmington. Father Francis Mackin performed the ceremony before the altar of St. Thomas' Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in an old fashioned white gown having a fitted bodice and hooped skirt of tiered lace, falling to a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a camelot cap and she carried a cascade of red and white roses centered with carnations.

Mrs. Christine Jackson of Swartz Creek, Michigan, served her sister as matron of honor in a lovely long sleeved gown with pastel green bodice and a full length straight skirt featuring a spring floral design. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a basket of spring flowers.

Linda and Donna Maloney of Lowell Street, Pepperell, both sisters of the groom acted as bridesmaids. They wore gowns styled like that of the matron of honor. Donna's gown featured a bright pink bodice while Linda's bodice was of vivid orange. They wore matching headpieces and carried cascades of spring flowers.

Ronald Blizard of Agawam Street, Lowell, brother of the bride served as best man while ushering duties were in charge of Robert Maloney of Lowell Street, Pepperell and David Zaino of Osgood Street Lawrence.

Mrs. Brown chose for her daughter's wedding a full length gown featuring a white bodice and a floral skirt. She wore a mixed corsage.

The mother of the groom was attired in a full length gown of yellow chiffon with long full sleeves.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Branding Iron in Tewksbury where Jeanne Lawrence was in charge of the guest book.

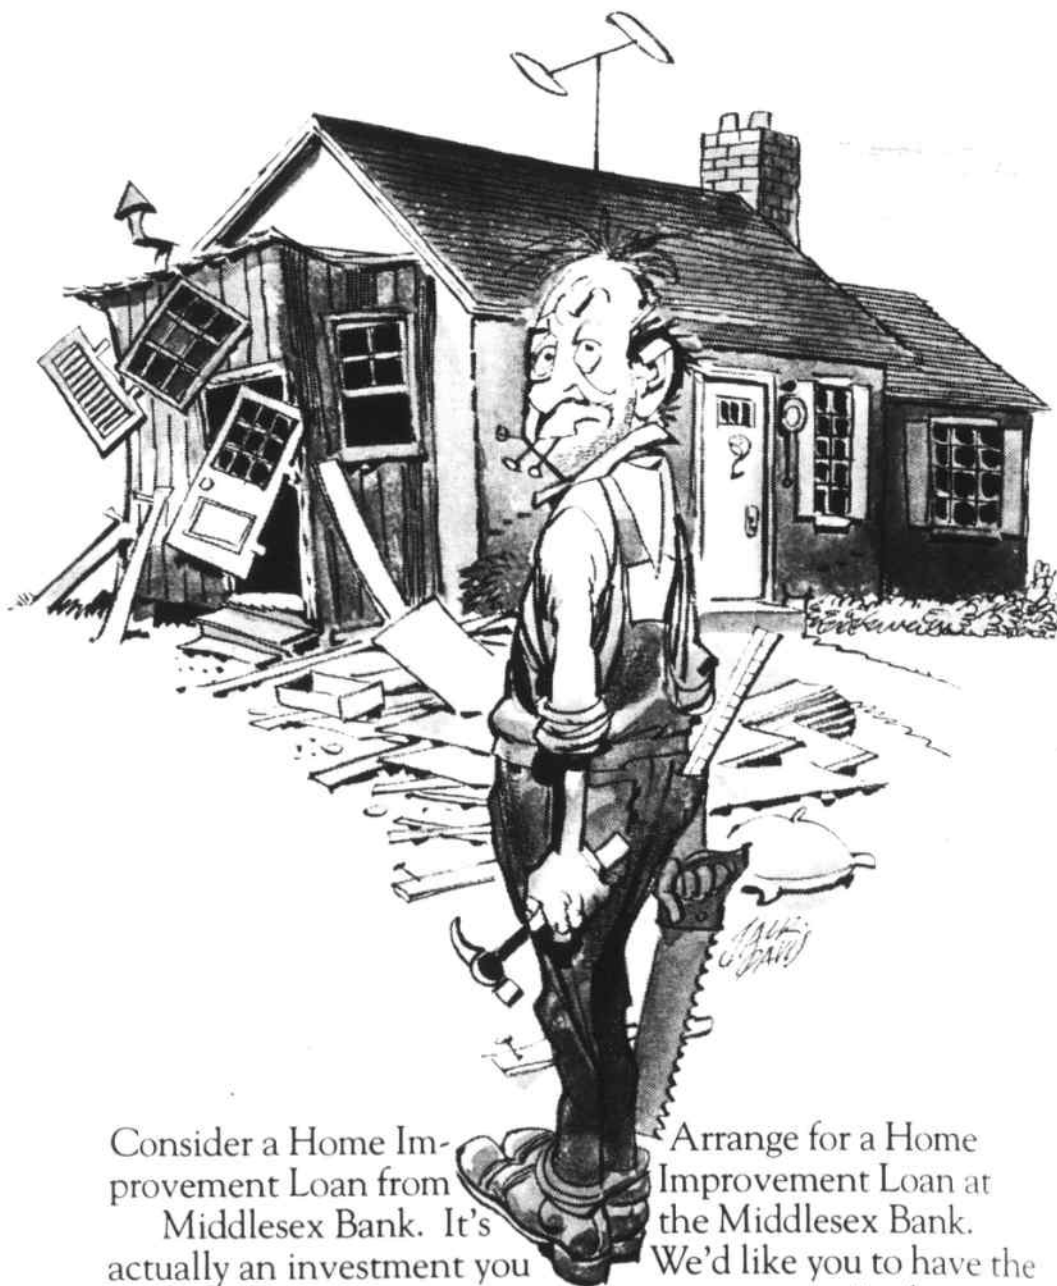

For traveling, the new Mrs. Lawrence chose an orange shift with a printed sash and a matching coat of orange and white print.

Following a wedding trip through the White Mountains, the couple will reside at 83 Park Avenue, Lowell.
